

BOISE MUSIC WEEK 2017
- PRESENTS -

MARY
POPPINS
MUSICAL THEATER PRODUCTION

- Boise Music Week 2017 - Music - An Adventure for Life

Ninety-nine (99) years and counting! What a wonderful tradition of music to have in our community. Boise Music Week has been providing a marvelous week of music of all kinds for such a long time that we often forget who and what makes it possible. YOU! All the time, talent, and enjoyment would go unappreciated if generous people did not continue to support Music Week with their donations. Beginning with International Dance Night and ending with the production of this year's musical Mary Poppins, our community, especially our youth, are showcased. We will have music and fun for everyone – School Night, Music in the Park, Church Night, All That's Jazz, Organ Concerts, and Showcase. Rehearsals have been going strong since February and volunteers will be spending many, many hours preparing for the events. All of you help make this week possible and all for free of charge. No admission charges will be required at any of the events. Boise is a great city, made better by its strong support of the arts. We are indeed fortunate. In addition, we are already starting the planning process for next year - our 100th Celebration of Music Week! Wow, that is going to be exciting. In the meantime, enjoy Music Week 2017 by attending the events.

Roger Lingle, President, Boise Music Week

forever grateful...

Harry W. Morrison, co-founder of the Morrison Knudsen Construction Company, and his wife, Velma V. Morrison shared a love of music and Broadway theatre, and dreamed of building a performing arts center in their beloved Boise. The dream finally became reality in 1984, long after Harry's passing in 1971. Velma, who had long been a Boise Music Week supporter, offered the use of the Morrison Center, for the highlight event, the Broadway Musical production, beginning in 1988. Since then thousands have had the thrill of performing on that stage and thousands more have enjoyed the productions. Everyone is invited, regardless of their ability to pay, to experience the grandeur of the Velma V. Morrison Center for the Performing Arts, during Boise Music Week.

Velma passed way in 2013. Boise Music Week remains forever grateful to Harry and Velma Morrison for their passion, foresight, determination and generosity, and now appreciates the wonderful opportunity to continue working with the Morrison Center Endowment Foundation to perpetuate their legacy in this community.

Synopsis

Bert, the chimney sweep and jack-of-all-trades, introduces us to 1910 England and the Banks family. Young Jane and Michael have sent many a nanny packing before Mary Poppins shows up at their door. The family finds that she's the answer to their prayers, but in the most peculiar way. Using magic and common sense she teaches the Banks' how to value each other again.

Mary Poppins takes the children on many magical, memorable adventures but Jane and Michael aren't the only ones upon whom she has a profound effect. Even grownups can learn a lesson or two from the nanny who advises that "Anything Can Happen if You Let it!"

Wendy Koepl, Director

Wendy and her husband Jim have been married for 35 years, and have 4 sons, 3 daughters-in-law, and 3 (almost 4!) grandchildren. Wendy has worked at Washington Elementary School for 24 years, the last 9 of those as librarian. She is a current board member at Boise Little Theater as well as a past president. Wendy has directed numerous plays at BLT, as well as Beauty and the Beast and Hello Dolly! for Music Week.

Wendy is thrilled to have worked with so many talented people to bring you this production of Mary Poppins! From the fantastic music director and choreographer, to the assistant director, stage manager, and production assistant; from the irreplaceable props crew, costumers, make-up artists, and fantastic orchestra, to set builders, painters, and dressers; from the set designer, lighting designer, sound designer.... all of the magical people at the Morrison Center, to the dedicated Boise Music Week organization; these people, together with an amazingly talented cast, have given their hearts to this production. It has truly been supercalifragilisticexpialidocious! Thank you all!

Allyn McCain Krueger, Production Chairman

Allyn, a native Idahoan and BSU Theatre grad, has been active on the local theatre scene for 30 years. Directing a show on the Morrison Center stage is, for her, nothing less than thrilling. She has directed several shows for BMW, most recently South Pacific in 2013 and is preparing to direct the BMW Centennial production in 2018. She is a past president of BMW and has served on the board of directors for 21 years. Allyn is amazed at the talent and the spirit of arts volunteerism in our community and thanks the dedicated members of the Production committee and the Morrison Center Production staff.

Mary Poppins is presented through special arrangement with Music Theatre International (MTI). All authorized performance materials are also supplied by MTI, 421 West 54th Street, New York, NY 10019. Tel.: (212) 541-4684 Fax: (212) 397-4684 www.MTIshows.com
Videotaping or other video or audio recording of this production is strictly prohibited.

Boise Music Week thanks the BACKSTAGE PIRATES -- a group of professional stagehands from Boise, whose experience ranges from 5-35 years, including those specializing in carpentry and custom building, set design, lighting design, props, and sound. Their mission includes maintaining excellence within the technical aspects of theater, and increasing education within the arts communities. Past projects have raised funds for the Woman's and Children's Alliance, the Idaho Food Bank, and the Wounded Warriors Project. More information is available at <http://backstagepirates.com/Site/Welcome.html>

THE MUSIC MAN

Boise Music Week's musical for its 100th season, in 2018, will be The Music Man. Look for audition dates to be posted on BoiseMusicWeek.org this September or October. Follow us on Facebook, Twitter, or Snapchat to be the first to hear.

Production Staff

Cheryl Blauer

After completing the costumes for Boise Music Week's Beauty and the Beast, I made a promise with two great ladies that when Mary Poppins was released I would join them in putting together the show. So here Wendy and I are 10 years later with Mary Poppins. Our third lady in the promise was Linda Berg. This show is for you Linda!! Thank you to Keri Fitch for co-designing with me so that I was able to be on the directing team. Also, thank you to all those that helped sew and dress this wonderful production. Lastly, thank you to a patient and supportive husband and daughter. Vacation is coming soon!!

JeNeale Gunnell

This is my second run at Boise Music Week, and I have loved being part of this great Treasure Valley tradition. I have sung, accompanied vocalists and choirs, and directed music for most of my life. I've musically directed a few shows in the valley including Next to Normal, Little Shop of Horrors, and Boise Music Week's Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum; and I've worked with many talented actors and directors all over the valley. Thanks to my family for supporting me while I follow a dream!

Kay Mack

Kay has been dancing and involved in performing arts forever (her mom was a pianist)! She is currently in her 38th year of teaching dance for Boise Parks and Recreation and is also business manager for Boise Little Theater. Her training is in a variety of dance styles, tap being her most favorite, thus her motto: "You gotta make some noise!" Mary Poppins is the sixth show Kay has choreographed for Music Week and in her own words, "I am so proud of the dance team, other cast members, and everyone else who has dedicated their time, creative energy, and talent to make this a really memorable show! So now, sit back, turn off your phones, and let the magic begin!"

Dianna McAllister

Dianna has been involved with Boise Music Week for the last nine years and has done everything from stage crew to sword dancing. Dianna thanks her husband Chaz for his amazing support and time watching their very active five-year-old Robbie and their new addition Scott! Thank you also to Jay for being my other half during this show.

Jay Parker

Jay is gracing the wings, once again, for his 5th show on the Morrison Center Stage. I am so grateful to Wendy and Dianna for allowing me to do this amazing production. Get lost with these amazing and talented people, both on and off the stage.

Brent Karlberg

Brent has a Masters of Fine Arts degree in Technical Theater and Lighting Design, from the University of Idaho. He has worked with the Coeur d'Alene Summer Theater, Idaho Repertory Theater, the Spokane Interplayers, the Missouri Central Repertory Theater, and Northern Arizona University. Brent is the Production Manager at the Morrison Center for the Performing Arts. Brent has designed the set for Mary Poppins and many other Boise Music Week's musical productions.

Matt Curtis

Matt began his theatre work as Lighting and Video Intern with the Denver Center for the Performing Arts. He graduated from Casper College with an Associate's Degree in Technical Theatre with a focus on Lighting and Video Production, and completed his Bachelor's Degree in Technical Theatre and Digital Technology at Boise State University. Matt has worked as a master electrician for the Idaho Shakespeare Festival, Boise Contemporary and other local non-profit arts organizations including Boise Music Week for 13 years. He has served as a lighting consultant for Barbizon Lighting for the last 11 years and joined the staff of the Morrison Center in 2007 as Assistant Production Manager. Matt is also the Co-founder of BackstagePirates.Com.

Reilly Ramos - Jane Banks

Reilly is so thrilled to be playing Jane Banks in BMW production of Mary Poppins. Although Reilly has performed in other musicals before: Young Cossette (Les Misérables); Jemima Potts (Chitty, Chitty, Bang, Bang) and Mary Lennon (The Secret Garden), this will be her first performance with Boise Music Week. Reilly is thrilled to be part of this long standing Boise tradition. Many thanks to Bonnie Salewski and Leigh Falconer who are the best Vocal and Music teachers anyone could ask for. Thinking fondly of Linda Berg and the wonderful spark she ignited.

Gavin Lee - Michael Banks

Gavin began performing in dance recitals at the age of 5. Gavin loves playing sports and taking tap lessons from his dad, Clay Lee. Being the baby he has officially made performing in Boise Music Week productions a family affair, following in the footsteps of his late grandma, the great Kathy Lee. This one's for you grandma!!

Ben Clegg - George Banks

Ben has his BA from BYU-Idaho, where he minored in musical theatre. He and his husband came to Boise in 2005 to perform summer stock theatre and relocated here shortly thereafter. Recent roles include: Archibald Craven in Secret Garden (BMW 2014), Javert in Les Misérables (KED 2013), and Senex in A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum (BMW 2016).

Christian Grey - Bert

After playing Bum #1 in Little Shop of Horrors, Borland in The Future Soon, Brad in The Rocky Horror Show, and Big S in Seven Santas, it has become clear that Christian can only be cast in roles whose names start with "B". In an attempt to try something different, Christian recently auditioned for the role of Mary Poppins. The director unfortunately did not take to his idea of "Marty Poppins" as a new interpretation of this classic. Alas, Christian is overjoyed to be starring in his newest "B" role and sharing the stage with so many talented people. He would like to thank his wife Katherine for her continued patience and support. "

Sarah Howard - Mary Poppins

Boise native Sarah Howard holds degrees in Musical Theatre Performance and English, and has performed professionally and academically in Idaho, Wyoming, and Virginia. She is working toward a career as a children's author. Past favorite shows include Hamlet (Ophelia), Les Miserables (Cosette), Cinderella (Fairy Godmother), and The Music Man (Marian).

Julie Thimmig - Winifred Banks

Julie is thrilled to make her Boise Music Week premiere! A Wisconsin native and now Meridian resident, Julie and her husband Andy (and cat Chickpea) moved to the area two years ago to pursue her dream job: high school theatre teacher. She teaches theatre and directs performances at Middleton High School and loves it. Julie has taught and performed all over the world and is glad to be involved in this beautiful story.

Come and enjoy your picnic lunch while listening to the Grace Jordan Elementary Choir, Jim Perkins' Mulligan Band, the Sweet Adeline's Women's Chorus, the Borah Chamber Orchestra, the Verde Percussion and the BSU trombone Choir.

Steve Sherer - Chairman

Steve picked up his French Horn 15 years ago and has been busy ever since. He plays principal horn in the Meridian Symphony Orchestra, has his own brass quintet, Stillwater Brass, and also plays in Dan Smith's brass group, The Glory 7 Brass. He has been involved in Music in the Park as Master of Ceremonies for the past five years and has been a President's Member of the Boise Music Week Board for 8 years. He teaches a Bible study at his church, serving also as head usher. In his spare time he practices law at Sherer & Wynkoop, LLP, a firm based in Meridian, Idaho.

ALL THAT'S JAZZ! - South Junior High School - Saturday - May 6th - 7:00pm

Singin' and Swingin' sums up Boise Music Week's ALL THAT'S JAZZ! 2017.

By popular demand we welcome back to our stage two amazing groups. "Mostly Mary," bringing their heartwarming tunes of yesteryear with unsurpassed a cappella harmony magic; and "Jazztasia Redux," featuring well known Chuck Smith, Sandon Mayhew and friends ensemble, who will delight jazz enthusiasts of all ages with their creative, modern twist of Cuban rhythm and beat.

We are honored to, once again, have Jim Duthie of Channel 7's News Team returning as our MC. He brings his love of music and delightful wit and humor to guide us through the evening.

Fan of jazz? New to jazz music? This event will soak into your soul.

We encourage budding musicians to attend for a family-friendly jazz experience.

Prepare to be thoroughly entertained as you experience ALL THAT'S JAZZ! 2017.

Beverly Schumacher - CoChair

Beverly is a newly retired music teacher from the Boise School District. She has been a long time participant in Boise Music Week as a consumer and performer. Beverly is Vice-President of the Boise Music Week Board of Directors and is co-chairman of the newest All That's Jazz! event. She is proud of the many times her own children as well as students and former students have performed in Boise Music Week including Reilly Ramos who is playing Jane Banks in Mary Poppins.

Shannon Smurthwaite - CoChair

Shannon has been involved with Boise Music Week since 1994. Born and reared in Los Angeles, she comes from a long line of professional musicians and performers. She serves on BMW's finance committee in addition to co-chairing All That's Jazz! event. She is an author, food columnist, freelance writer and designer. She and her husband, Donald, are the parents of four wonderful children and four adorable grandchildren.

A gospel quartet and soloist Michelle Pederson will also be featured. The speaker is Roger Lingle, President of Boise Music Week

Doris Downum, Chairman

Doris sings with the Cathedral of the Rockies Chancel Choir and is pleased to welcome other singers to the Cathedral sanctuary for Church Night. She loves music and has been involved with church choirs and activities for as long as she can remember! She was also a 30 year member of Boise Master Chorale and has toured Europe with other choral groups. Doris welcomes new talent to present to the community each year at the Church Night event.

SHOWCASE CONCERT - South Junior High School - Monday - May 8th - 7:00pm

The Boise Valley Chordsmen

The Chordmen are a 40-man chorus of performers who love to sing four-part a cappella selections in a variety of musical styles including Broadway, gospel, barbershop, doo-wop and jazz. The chorus performs frequently throughout the Treasure Valley, and donates much of its proceeds to charities such as the Salvation Army, the Boise Rescue Mission, and Saint Alphonsus Foundation. For over 10 years we have sponsored the Idaho Youth Barbershop Festival. This past year we hosted over 1,000 students in the Morrison Center under the direction of the "godfather of a cappella" Deke Sharon. A few years ago the chorus made a commitment to constant improvement of its vocal technique, musicianship, and overall presentation value. We love to sing exceptionally well and genuinely entertain. We are a close brotherhood, and we love depending upon each other to make the music that moves our community.

Treasure Valley Concert Band, Marcellus Brown, Conductor

This fine band is now beginning its 35th season. They are comprised of musicians from all walks of life who enjoy playing fine wind instrument literature. The group plays three regular concerts per year, repeating those concerts in various communities throughout the Treasure Valley. Conductor Marcellus Brown came to Boise State University in 1989 and has been directing this group for over 20 years. He is an outstanding conductor and has been recognized for his work and dedication not only at Boise State but is asked to conduct many music groups both here and abroad. Our program tonight is sure to please our audience...music you can recall from years past, classic band literature from Broadway show tunes and current film scores as well...all of which encourages you, the audience, to tap your feet and hum along with our band.

Jim Perkins, Chairman

Jim was the director of Bands at Borah High School for 30 years. He has served as President of Boise Music Week for three terms and has been involved with the organization for over 50 years. Jim has been the Chairman of Monday Showcase for many years and will be the Master of Ceremonies for both the Monday Showcase and the International Dance Night. Presently Jim is the conductor of the Capital City Mulligan Band. His band is comprised of musicians who have played in high school or college bands and still enjoy performing with a community band. He often spends his spare time on the golf course.

SCHOOL NIGHT CONCERT, BOISE SCHOOLS - Taco Bell Arena -Tuesday - May 9th - 7:00pm

The School Night Concert is proud to present performances by ensembles representing the Boise School District. From the elementary grades you will hear from the Kiwanis Boys Choir, Elementary Honor Choir, Intermediate Honor Band and Intermediate Honor Orchestra. The secondary schools will offer selections performed by the United Junior High Choir, Junior High Honor Orchestra, United High School Choir, United High School Orchestra, United High School Jazz Band and Timberline HS Encore choir and the Capital HS Chamber Orchestra. The concert will be with over 2,000 student vocalists and instrumentalists performing "God Bless America" and the grande finale will proclaim "Let There Be Peace On Earth".

The Boise School District is committed to providing a comprehensive liberal arts education to every student. Music is a significant component of that philosophy and is a hallmark of the Boise School District.

If you have never attended the School Night Concert, you will be amazed at the talent and skill that our young people possess. If you have attend in past years, you will not want to miss this event! For the second year in a row we will present our performance on Tuesday night at 7:00 PM in the Taco Bell Arena.

Rich Lapp - Chairman

Rich has taught vocal music for 31 years in Boise; at Fairmont JHS, Boise HS and Timberline HS. He is currently enjoying his second year serving the Boise School District as Supervisor of Music and Art. Rich has been involved in Barbershop quartet and chorus music for 34 years, has directed the Boise Chordsmen for over 20 years and has sung in many local quartets. Rich has been married to Leni for 34 years and their 4 children have had valuable educational experiences in academics, athletics and performing arts in the Boise School District.

EGYPTIAN ORGAN RECITAL & SILENT MOVIE

Egyptian Theatre - 7th & Main - Friday - May 12th -12:15pm

Take a break from your normal lunchtime activities and join us as we step back in time to the days of silent movies and old fashion singalongs. Sean Rogers will be accompanying two Masters of Comedy silent movies, A Woman (1915) and Big Business (1929), on the fabulous Robert Morton Theatre Organ. Then young and old will have fun singing the old familiar songs of yesterday.

Sean Rogers - Chairman

Sean has won praise and acclaim nationally and internationally for his artistic mastery at the keyboard as both a solo performer and a collaborator. Sean is the Conductor/Music Director of the Treasure Valley Symphony and is the Staff Accompanist at Opera Idaho and pianist for Sun Valley Opera. He has had four arrangements published through SONOLOGY Music. He tours nationally in his own shows and productions showcasing music from the "Great American SongBook" and improvising music for silent movies on both piano and organ. Sean was just awarded the Mayor's "Excellence in the Performing Arts for 2016" award for the city of Nampa, Idaho.

In Memoriam

Kathy Lee

Boise Music Week will long fondly remember choreographer Kathy Lee, who generously and cheerfully contributed her time and talent over the past 15 years. Kathy owned the Kathy Lee School of Dance in Boise for over 24 years and enjoyed teaching and sharing her love of dance with thousands of students of all ages. Kathy choreographed eleven BMW Musical Theatre Productions such as The Wizard of Oz, Crazy for You, Beauty and the Beast, Singin' in the Rain and most recently South Pacific in 2013. Kathy passed away unexpectedly in October, 2016. Kathy's dancing shoes will be hard to fill...

Linda Eustice Berg

In October 2015 Boise Music Week and our community lost a beloved friend, Linda Eustice Berg, who made such a huge difference in the lives of so many children and adults. For 30 years she worked with elementary school children in the valley and taught them to love music. She was the founder of Opera Idaho Children's Chorus and was honored as Idaho Teacher of the Year in 2010. Not only did she teach and direct but she unselfishly volunteered her time to Boise Music Week as vocal director for many of our Broadway productions. She loved musical theatre and demonstrated to everyone involved how sharing the gift of music brings joy to themselves and others.

Beth Hogan

An outfit like Boise Music Week – run by volunteers – doesn't last for 100 years because it attracts folks who don't care to deal with problems, who don't love music, and who don't stick around. Rather, it attracts people like Beth Hogan. She certainly had a passion and talent for music, but she also had an appetite for the hard work required for building success. Beth joined Music Week in 1965 and never stopped sticking around. She never stopped being busy either. She was the board secretary decade after decade. She was an eager participant, had an agile mind, and jumped in whole-heartedly when someone said, "We have a situation." Or, "We have a problem." Or, "Crisis!" For all that, she had fix-it skills. Plus, she was a lovely person, loyal, kind, told great jokes, drove big cars, and was fun to be around.
